The Class of 1963, "with love ever faithful," gratefully dedicates this issue of the Sacred Hearts Audion to our beloved Chaplain, Reverend Father Livinus Verhaeghe, SS.CC.,

the GLEAMING EXAMPLE that inspires us,
the GUIDING LIGHT that leads us,
the GOOD SHEPHERD who watches over us.

"Do you know who this is?" asks Father Livinus, showing his "children" a picture of Pope John XXIII.

T O W A R D N E

Reach out . . .

and seek your horizons

They are never quite at your elbow.

Everything worth while in life

requires effort;

to experience success at something,

no matter how small

or trite

it may seem

is to realize a desire to do something bigger,

and better and greater.

Nor is this unique.

Man seeks new horizons from dawn to dusk,

cradle to grave.

He searches in every field

be it sociology or theology,

medicine or government.

In science,

especially,

he has made great strides. Here

the horizon was once the sea,

then the sky, and now

the stars.

It is fitting for us, as students,

to realize and consider this.

It is during these years

W H O R I Z O N S

of learning
that characters, hopes, ambitions, and philosophies
are formed.

These should be carefully considered—marvelous things which we can follow with pride and conviction
throughout life.

In times of bitterness and disappointment
we must seek out and find consolation
in knowing where we are going,
and why.

To have a goal is the first step toward reaching it.

May our horizons
ever enrich and spread,
until such time as we pass
from this place.

For life is eternal,
and love is immortal,
and even death
is only a horizon...

My dear Graduates:

A long future awaits you as you graduate from high school. A vast horizon stretches out before you and, to a certain extent, it is an uncharted sea that lies ahead. And yet your training and education in a Catholic School has endeavored to give you a compass and plan for your journey toward new horizons.

You have heard people assert accurately enough that without God we can do nothing. Even with God, however, it is necessary that we do our part. Everything that we do in life must be in harmony with God's plan. Your whole education at the Academy has prepared you for the fulfillment of God's plan in your regard.

Now that you graduate you need to keep clear in your mind that the success of your life and real happiness in your life will depend on how faithful you are to divine guidance day after day. Your observance of His laws and your understanding of His teachings will mean peace and joy and success in life.

Do not be afraid of the future. Have confidence in God and be faithful to Him and be faithful to the Christian training you have received.

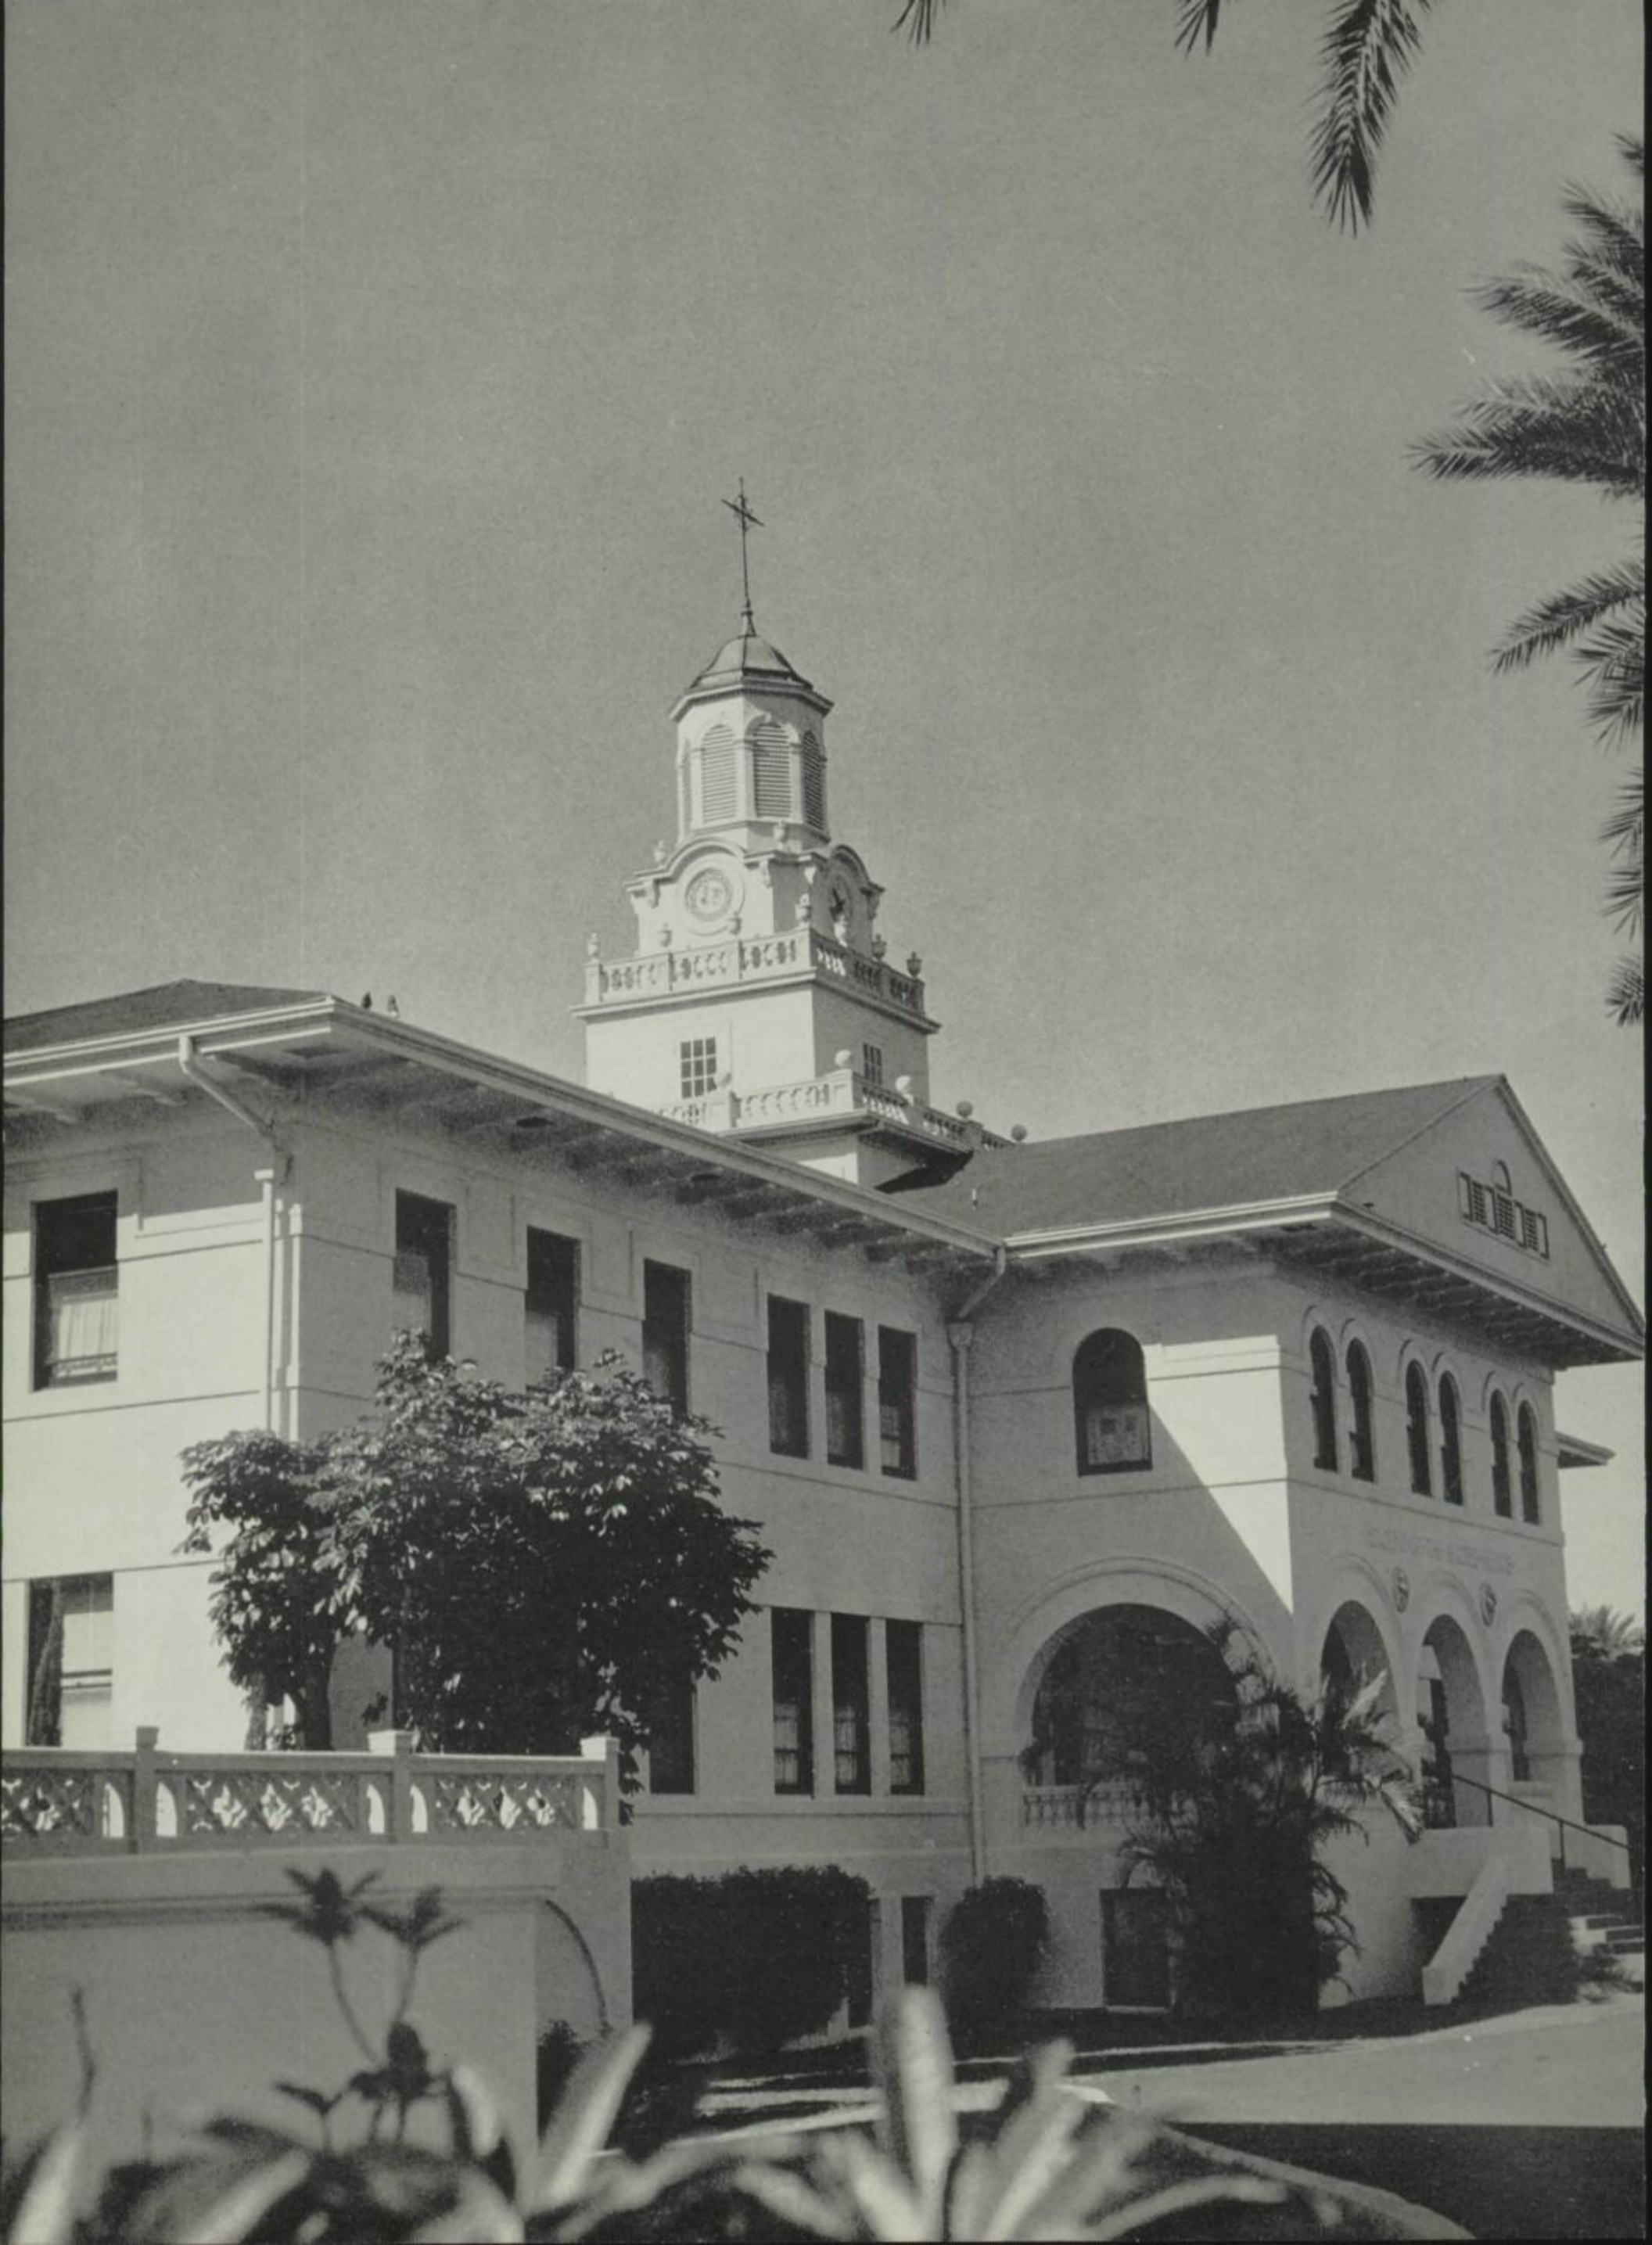

Begging God's blessing upon you and your parents and your teachers, I remain

Faithfully yours,

Incensing the Offering...

DURING

OUR CHAPLAIN'S JUBILEE MASS

Very Reverend Brandon Furtado, Provincial of the Sacred Hearts Fathers, eulogizes Father Livinus's fifty years of service in the Congregation.

While the choir sings the Gloria...

Dear Graduates of 1963:

At this time of your graduation you are witnessing an event of supreme importance in the history of the Catholic Church, I mean the present Ecumenical Council, the Second Vatican and only the twenty first General Council during a period of nearly two thousand years.

It is for you a singular privilege to witness such a tremendous manifestation of Unity in the Catholic Church: unity of faith, unity of government and a marvelous unity in the diversity of races among the Fathers composing this august assembly.

Now as you step into the world as grown-up high school graduates, you should look carefully for these directives that will come forth from the present General Council. Yes, for your own future way of living look toward those directives inspired by the Holy Spirit, Who, Christ promised, will dwell forever in this Church.

As far as we already know, there will be a special emphasis on the importance of the laity and on their active cooperation, not only in the Church's liturgy, but also in various parochial activities. Because of your thoroughly christian education, you are prepared to share in the apostolate of the laity. You must take your part in this sphere of Catholic Action. You cannot shirk your responsibilities of leadership in your milieu.

I firmly hope that you will not fail in this your duty as true children of the Sacred Hearts and alumnae of S.H.A.

Devotedly yours in the Sacred Hearts

Reverend Mother Mary Gertrude, SS.CC.
Provincial Superior of the Sisters of the Sacred Hearts in Hawaii

Our beloved St. Margaret Mary Chapel . . .

My dear Graduates,

Congratulations as you prepare to step forward toward new and greater horizons! Yes, you are about to graduate from the Academy, and your graduation must mark for you one of those very special moments of deep and humble gratitude: gratitude to God Who has been so infinitely good to you; gratitude to your parents who have sacrificed so much for you.

With pleasure I have noted the choice of your theme—"New Horizons"—a timely one, indeed, during this historic Council Year. And how appropriate the Dedication to one of God's priests!

With such a theme, with such a year, and with such a dedication, my thoughts turn naturally toward Holy Mother Church. What joy and pride should thrill you as you realize that you are a member of that great Infallible Church—the Mystical Body of Christ! But the Church is essentially a community of love. Is not this Christ's Great Commandment: "Love one another"? Step forth then, children of the Sacred Hearts! Represent worthily our common Mother, Holy Church, by your Christlike bearing, by your language, and—above all—by your charity!

Love is the great "binding" force that brings men together: hatred, fruit of egoism and selfishness, sets men against one another. True love means service, and service has no horizons! It embraces the whole world. How? Through prayer. Let your prayer take in all mankind! But there must be yet more. You must share actively in the work of the Church. You must be an apostle. Your first and most pressing task is that of good example. Serve the Church by your respect, your obedience, and your zeal. Work in harmony with your parish priest. Lend a willing and helping hand—share fully the activities of the parish.

To be truly "up to date" means to take the Gospel literally and to live Christ's great Pontifical Prayer: "Father . . . that they may be one, even as We are one . . ." (St. John, 17, 22). This demands an intelligent and loyal service. It may not always be easy. Where will you find light and strength to serve bravely and perseveringly? The answer is simple: near the Tabernacle. Surely you do not forget how Jesus has blessed your visits to Him in the Academy chapel.

Today you are young and alert. Keep that way, and be ever determined to SERVE, with the comforting, reassuring remembrance of your greatest privilege: "I am a daughter of the Church!"

Go forth, then, dear Graduates, and in your own little way reach out toward new and vast horizons. Those of the Church extend beyond the Universe—even unto God Himself. You, too, can reach there.

With prayers that God may fill you with His love and His grace, I again offer you my sincere congratulations.

ALOHA!

S.H.A. ALMA MATER

True children of the Sacred Hearts,
Loving thee, S.H.A.,
Our dear alma mater we fondly hail
With cheers of joy as we say:
One heart, one soul in all we do,
Grateful and loyal too,
Most proud of our colors with love we hold
Our cherished white and gold!

We love thee, dear alma mater!
All our lives we will endeavor
To uphold thy lofty standards!
Thy motto will guide us forever.
Loving children then we will be,
Far and near surely thou wilt see
Each of us striving most earnestly
In sorrow, or joy, to be Faithful to thee!

"Communism is infiltrating many Latin American countries," Marguerite Anderson tells Sue Schreier and Carolyn Ching.

In Trig class, Darlene Yamasaki, Lauralei Yuen, and Claudia Wong tackle a "brain twister."

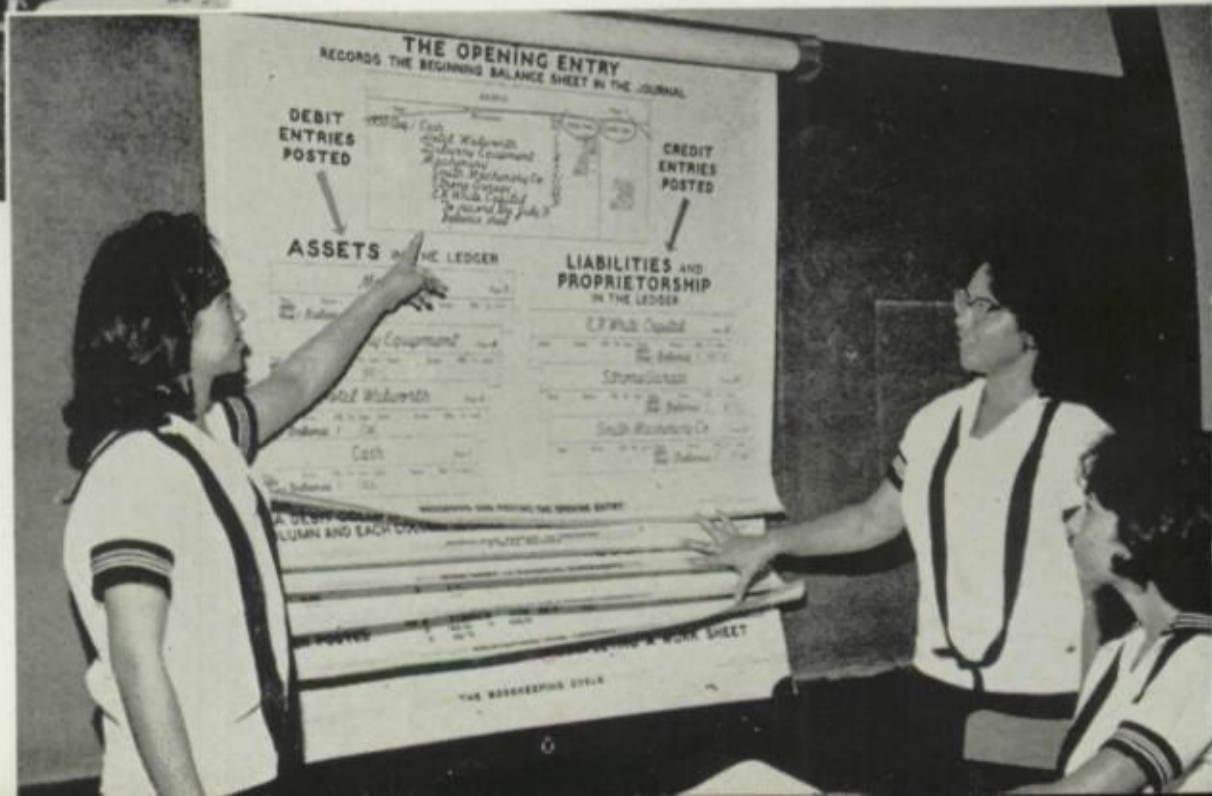

"... and Chaucer lived just across from London Bridge," Miss Cassidy tells English students, Sandra Miller, Juliana Choy, Kathleen Brissette, and Mary Leigh Andrews.

These future secretaries—Sue Pitner, Pamela Spector, Sandra Takai, and Therese Pestana—display their skill in Shorthand.

SENIORS

Kathleen Won explains the first steps in Bookkeeping to Raynette Duarte and Dolorine Tavares

St. Louis' spirited songleaders—Standing left to right: Mary Ann Ke-a, Pamela Riley, Kathleen Souza. Kneeling, left to right: Charlotte Mendes, Winona Bruhn, Roberta Reider.

Seniors, Carol Molina and Lana Lum clad in festive pastel holokus, lead the officers of the Jeanne d'Arc to their seats for a program given in their honor.

Jane, June 1963
 I feel kind of funny about signing a yearbook that isn't my school's. But anyway! If you wonder if you had any fun this year just think of KMC. Ron, Dan, Bob (his 1/2 smile), Emir and me. I will always wonder what was more fun: horseback riding in the rain, Sat. dance, bike riding or what? It was all so much fun. When I was about 12 I saw no point in a girl learning to play pool. Now I know different. It has all sorts of side benefits. Have a bitchin' summer, but keep it dear. Love ya forever, Di-

Victoria Russell in Diploma Recital

Miss Victoria R. Russell opened her program with a piano arrangement of Bach's Toccata in D Minor for organ. A spirited rendition of Chopin's Scherzo in B Flat Minor was followed by the Carnival of the Animals, performed by Victoria Russell, Mary Ellen Lovejoy, Alberta Leong, and Elizabeth Lovejoy.

The second half of the program opened with Seguidillas by Albeniz. Kojo no Tsuki, one of Miss Russell's favorites, was performed with special sensitivity. Gerschwin's Rhapsody in Blue ended the concert, with Phyllis Chang, Alberta Leong, and Frances Ho assisting Miss Russell with the orchestration.

His name is John.

He lives in Rome, at Vatican City.

His job is perhaps the most difficult, certainly the most demanding,
on earth.

He is the Sovereign Pontiff
of the Roman Catholic Church.

Described by one observer as "Christ in His humanity,"

John XXIII has allowed no grass
to grow
under his feet.

Though Pope for less than five years,

he has set the Church
and the world astir
by convening a Vatican Council,
the first in almost 100 years.

A vast and complicated undertaking,
he has directed it with energy and wisdom.

Time Magazine chose him "Man
of the Year,"

we can but reiterate its praise.

THE SECOND VATICAN COUNCIL

"Where two or three are gathered together
for my sake,
there am I in the midst of them." (Matthew 18:20)

In October of 1962, millions of Catholics
the world over joined together in fervent prayer for the success of the Second Vatican Council.

Convened on October 11,
this council brings together
Church theologians and hierarchy
representing all men,
all cultures,
all points of view.

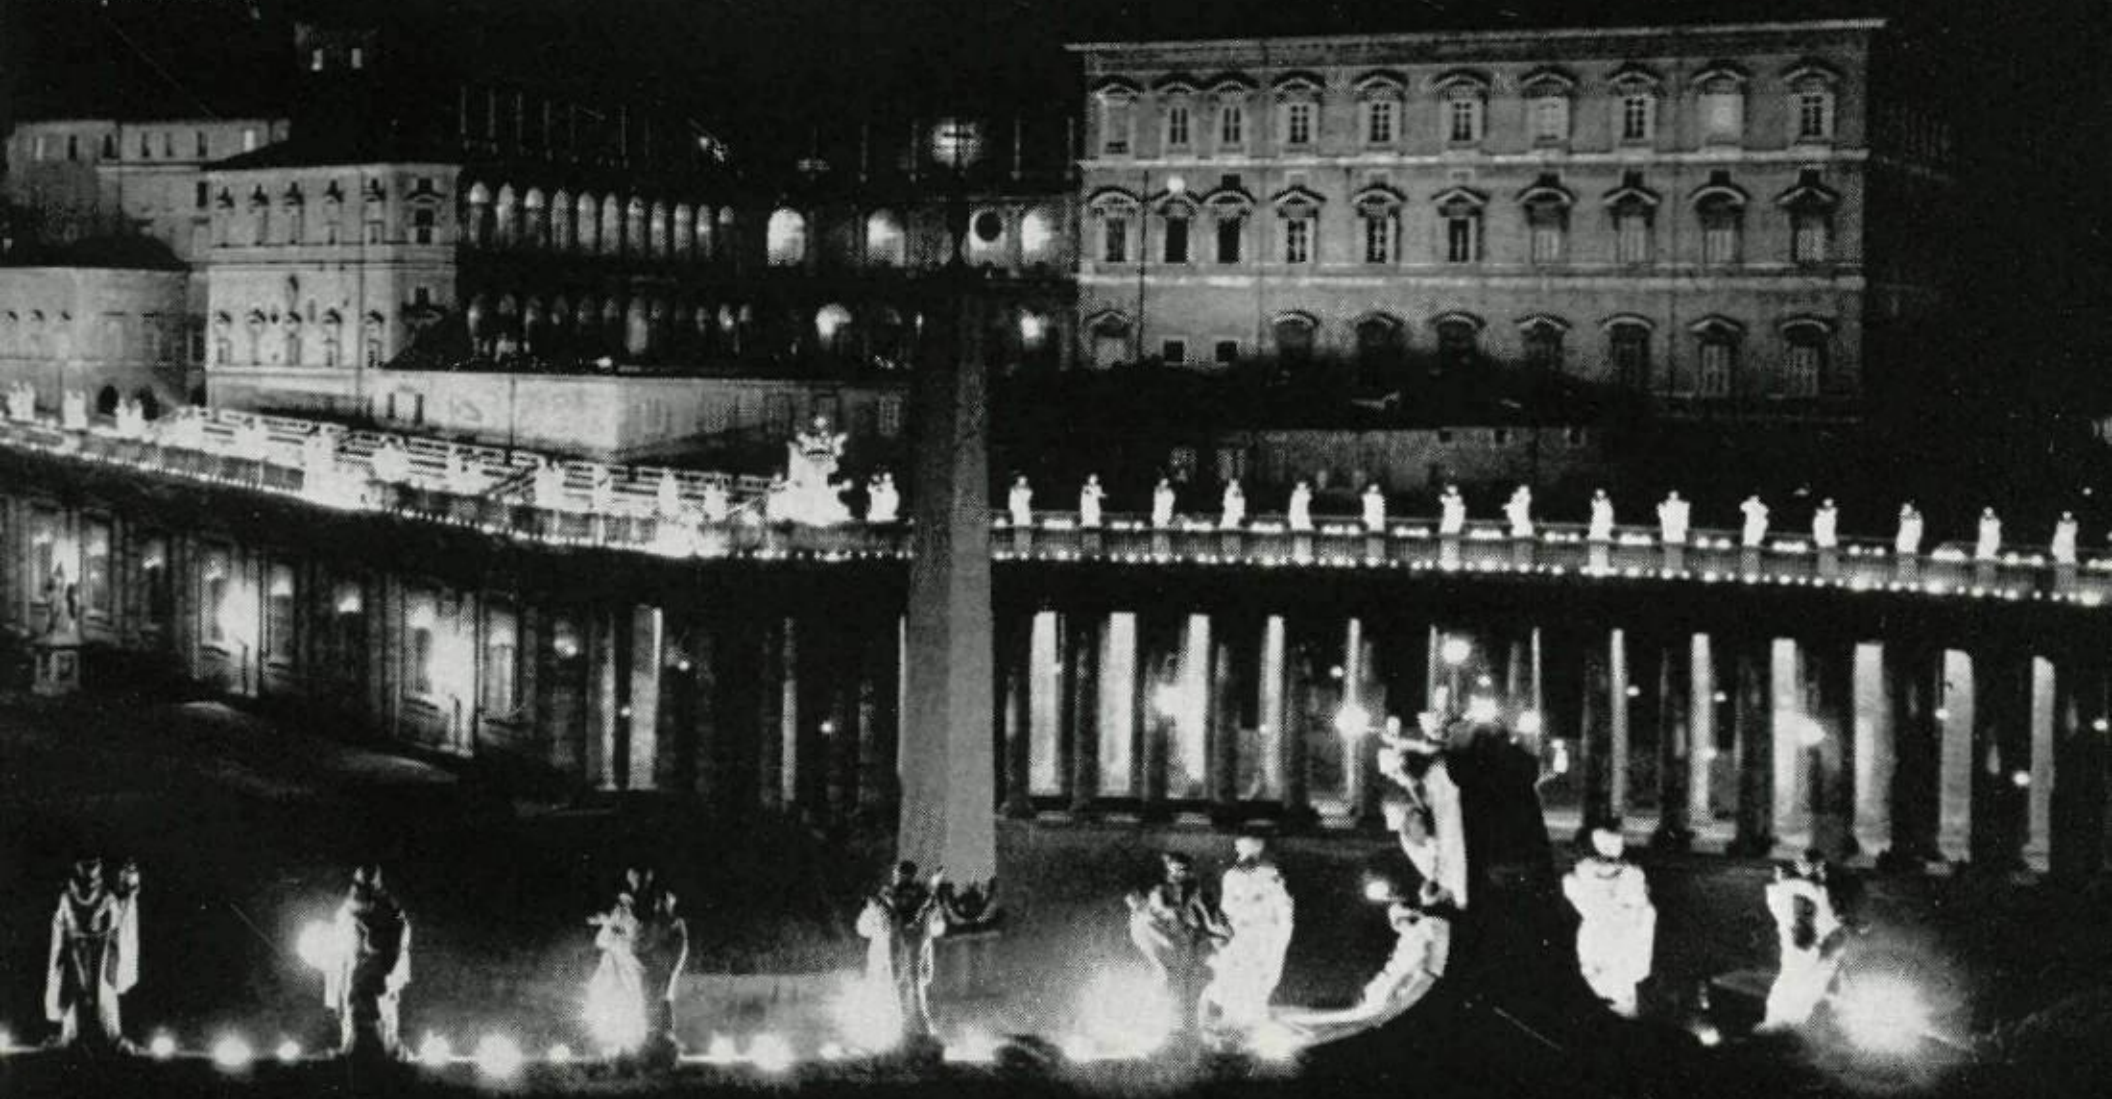

Its task is to discuss matters
of Church doctrine and discipline,
"renew the internal and external life of the Church."

This is no easy task.

Since the last Vatican Council,
held in 1870,

many complex and puzzling problems
have arisen,
which the Church must solve.
Communism, secularism, the role of the Lay Apostolate,
the Missions . . .
all these topics
and many more
are being discussed at the Council.

We at Sacred Hearts, realizing the significance of the Council
for us
as future Lay Apostles,
wish to extend our sincerest good wishes
and continued prayers
to the Fathers of the Council.
The eyes and prayers of the world
are focused on Rome.

Sister Damienne Joseph Uytterhoeven, SS.CC.
Belgium, August 6, 1886 Hawaii, November 27, 1962

IN MEMORIAM

His Excellency, the Most Reverend James J. Sweeney, D. D., Bishop of Honolulu, expresses the sentiments of SHA'ers as they bid a last farewell to Sister Damienne Joseph, SS.CC.

Kind blue eyes
and a sparkling smile,
A bright cheery "Good morning,"
helped to make many a girl's day
a bit more worth while!

Hundreds of girls in Hawaii Nei
Plus girls—and boys, too, they say
out Massachusetts way
Knew the kindness and patience,
the zeal and the gentleness
of her
whom God has called away.

We treasured her friendship
We valued her prayers.
We witnessed her virtues
We sensed her devotion.

Long years of teaching
Many years of suffering
Sustained by her fervor...
"St. Joseph
Give me patience!"
How often we listened to that whispered prayer!

Adorer, repairer
True child of the Sacred Hearts
Her life centered 'round
Her Tabernacled Lord.

She bore the names of those
she loved:
of good St. Joseph, holy patron and, of course, of her uncle—
Damien—the Leper-priest of Molokai.

Zealous, she strove to spread his fame
To further the glory of his name
That through him
Others might come Closer to the God he loved.

Her absence we feel as we did her presence
We think of her often, with fondest regard
In anger or trial her memory restores us...

She has left her mark on our hearts.

HAWAII . . . IN TRIBUTE

In a deep blue sea . . .

Hawaii . . .

Favored by God

In countless ways . . .

Blessed with beauty

and tropical charm

Blessed in her land

and in her sea . . .

Blessed in her Faith,

in her martyrs, in her priests

and in her people.

Hawaii . . .

Far from the centre of Christendom

Yet close to the heart of the Church.

Staunch is support of her Father . . .

Loyal to all His decrees.

Happy to share in all efforts

To foster the charity of Christ,

To bring all men together as brothers

Shepherded in One Great Flock.

Hawaii . . .

Proud in her Faith

Proud in her Catholic heritage

Takes added pride in the knowledge

That her two Bishops

So actively share

In the greatest event of the Century!

The Second Vatican Council.

May God speed them in their labors . . .

May His Spirit guide their decisions

As they sit in sacred sessions

In the great Basilica in Rome.

May His Spirit sustain their efforts

As they work with thousands of others

For the mutual benefit of all:

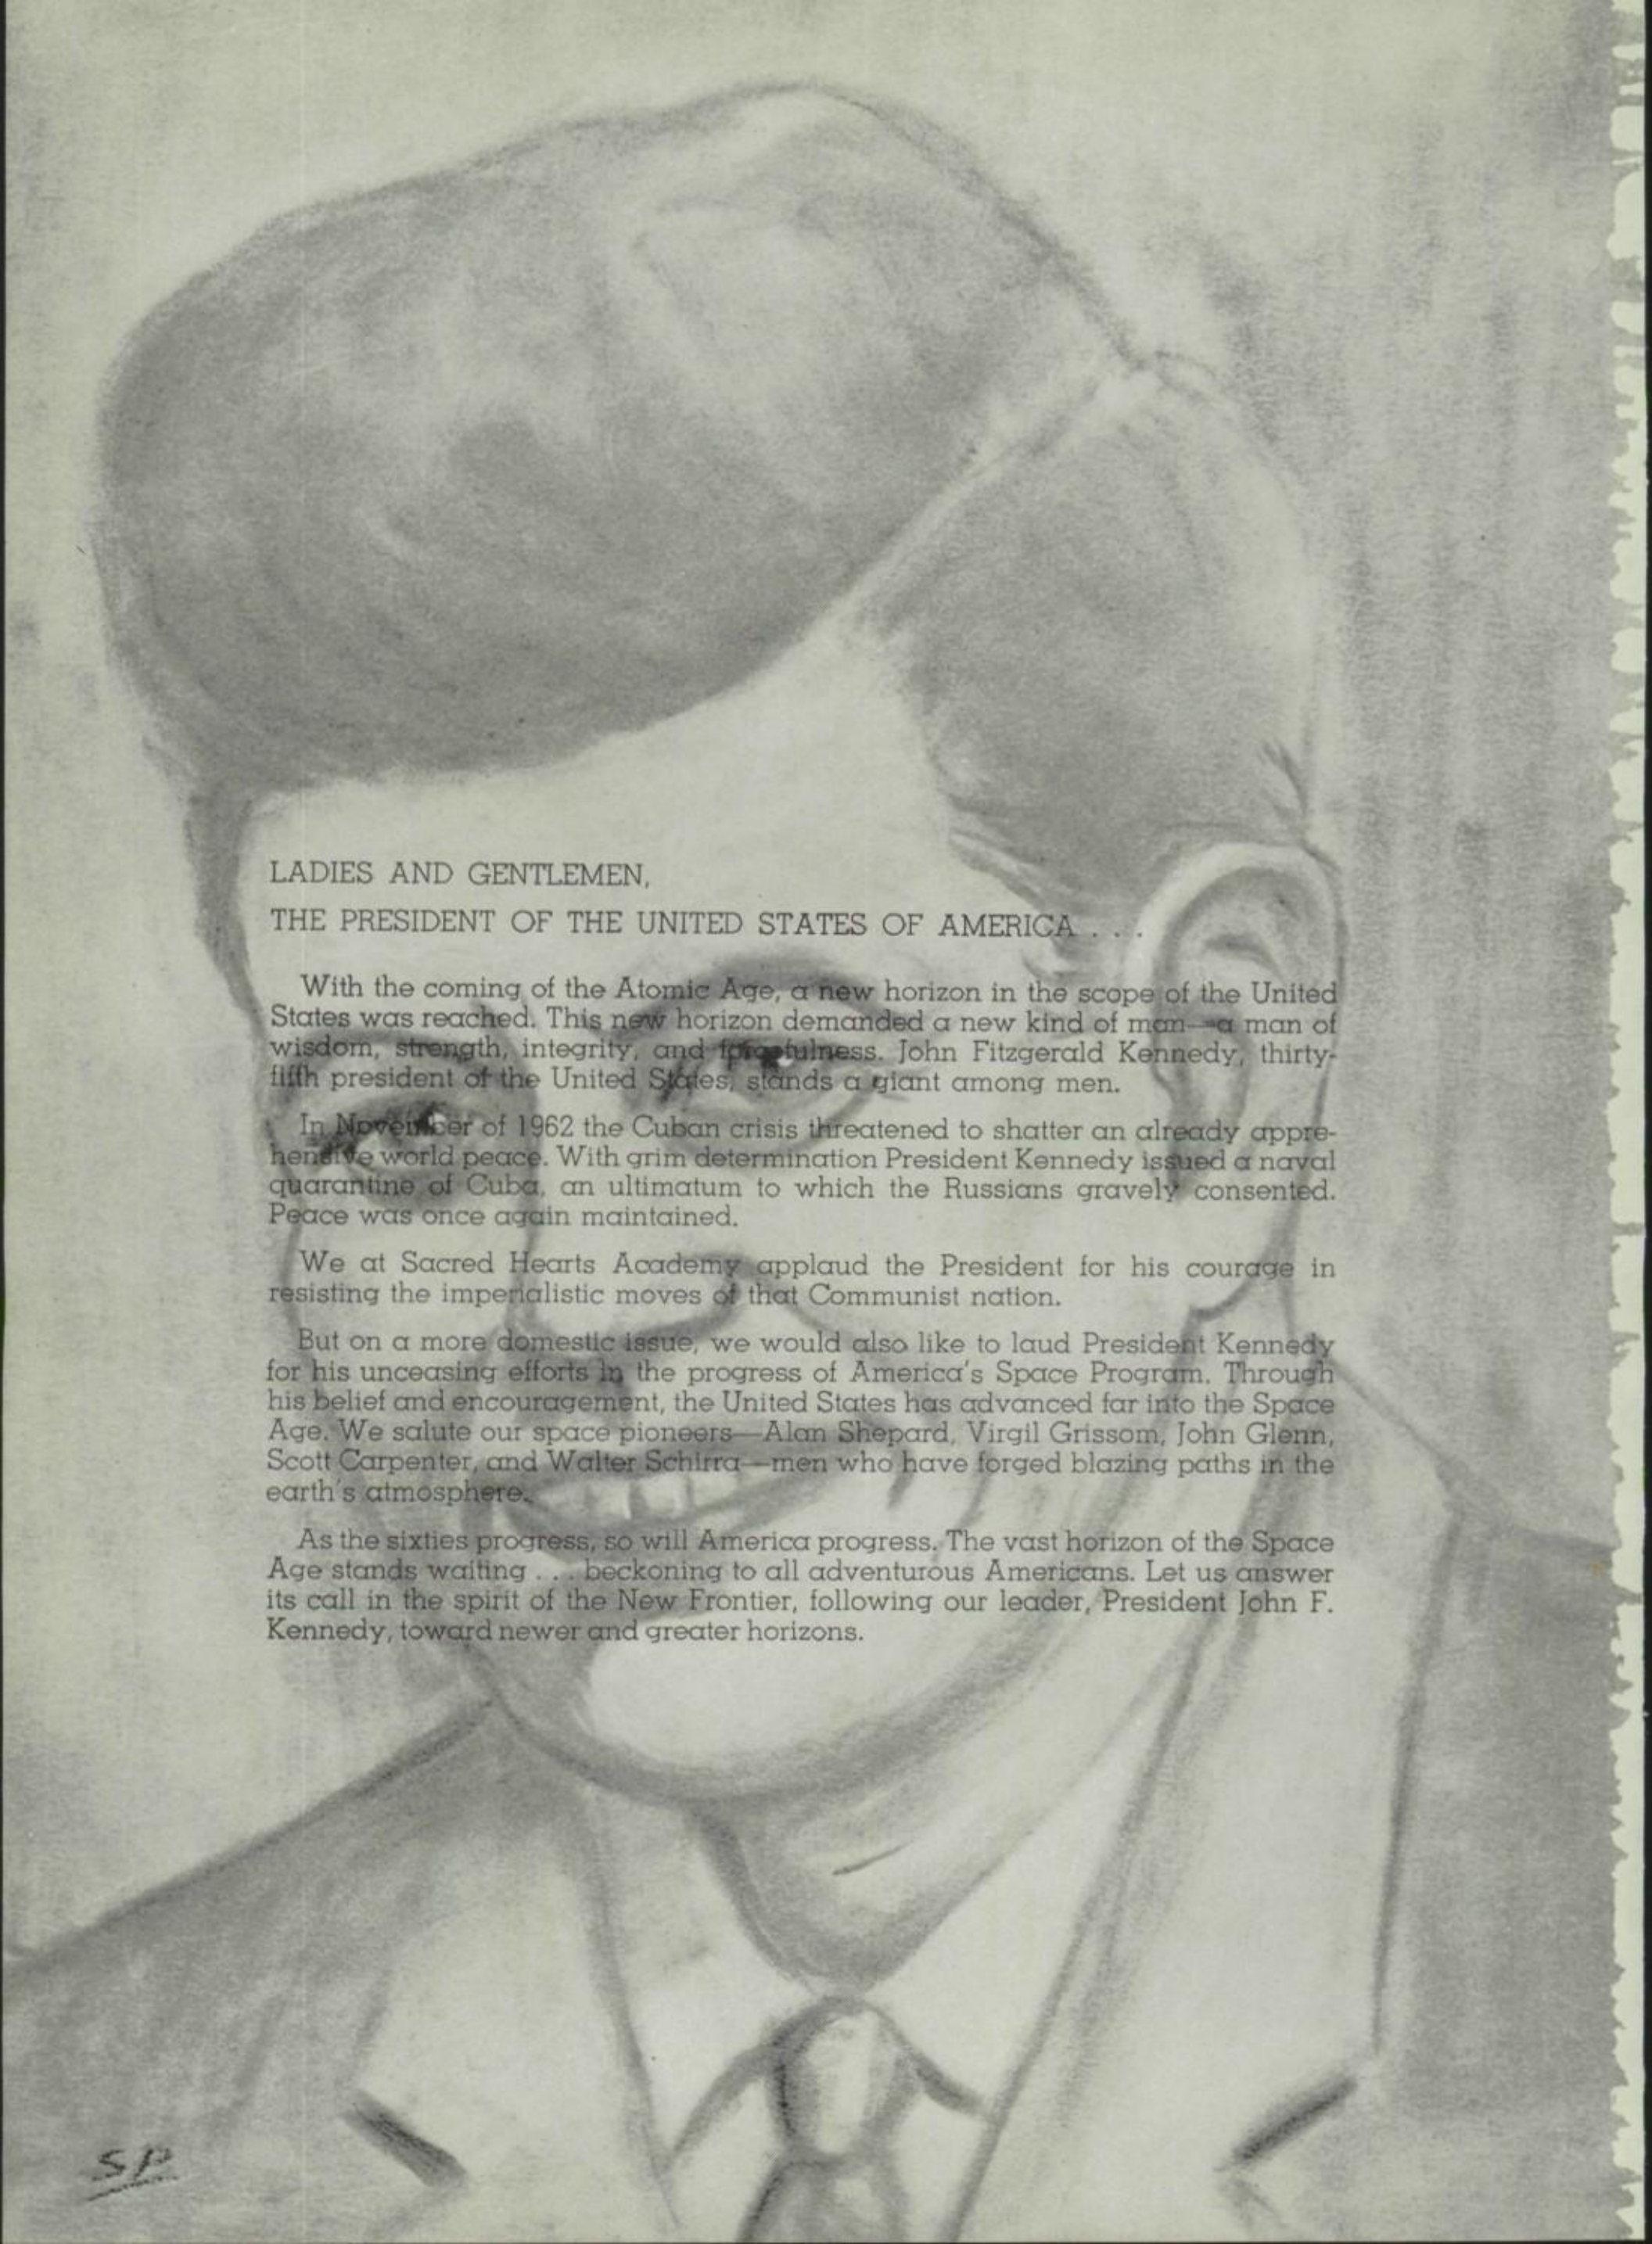

For the increase of Catholic fervor . . .

For the improvement of Christian morals . . .

For the clarification of Catholic doctrine . . .

For the fostering of Christian unity

Among all the sons of men!

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA . . .

With the coming of the Atomic Age, a new horizon in the scope of the United States was reached. This new horizon demanded a new kind of man—a man of wisdom, strength, integrity, and fortitude. John Fitzgerald Kennedy, thirty-fifth president of the United States, stands a giant among men.

In November of 1962 the Cuban crisis threatened to shatter an already apprehensive world peace. With grim determination President Kennedy issued a naval quarantine of Cuba, an ultimatum to which the Russians gravely consented. Peace was once again maintained.

We at Sacred Hearts Academy applaud the President for his courage in resisting the imperialistic moves of that Communist nation.

But on a more domestic issue, we would also like to laud President Kennedy for his unceasing efforts in the progress of America's Space Program. Through his belief and encouragement, the United States has advanced far into the Space Age. We salute our space pioneers—Alan Shepard, Virgil Grissom, John Glenn, Scott Carpenter, and Walter Schirra—men who have forged blazing paths in the earth's atmosphere.

As the sixties progress, so will America progress. The vast horizon of the Space Age stands waiting . . . beckoning to all adventurous Americans. Let us answer its call in the spirit of the New Frontier, following our leader, President John F. Kennedy, toward newer and greater horizons.

Linda De Mello as Vice president,
Donna Cameron as Secretary,
and Alexis Wood as Treasurer.

The Christmas spirit again
infects us.

Classrooms sparkle with tinseled trees, and

With hearts and voices filled with the joy of the Season, S.H.A.'ers sing a carol at the Christmas program.

Academites prepare their hearts
for Him
Who is to come.

Students and faculty attend
a special Christmas program,
hearing carols, poetry
and piano pieces of the Season.

Parties, parties, everywhere!
S. H. A. 'ers exchange gifts,
enjoy festivities,
and
leave Sacred Hearts,
and '62,
for Christmas vacation.

Gwen Vinta displays her gift to Sue Schreier, Sharolyn Pang, Ann Hee, and Therese Pestana at the Audion Christmas Party.

"Ready . . . set . . . open!" Staff members attack packages with
"vigah."

Joining the Magi in adoration at the Crib are sisters Robin, Jill and Deidra Souza.

IN THE LIMELIGHT

January

The New Year arrives;
and resolute S.H.A.'ers return
to school.

Exams are not far away,
so everyone settles down
to serious study.

Rain, rain...

Students are given a day off
as Honolulu is submerged for a day
in heavy rain.
Boots, anyone?

Scores from the Betty Crocker
Search for the Homemaker of Tomorrow
return, and Judy Galassi is our winner.

R.O.T.C. Sponsors are presented at a parade in front of St. Louis.
Seniors attend, enjoying a bird's eye view of the ceremony.

Phyllis Chang gives her
diploma recital,
receiving
leis and laudations
for a job well done.

Studious (?) Seniors soak up last minute knowledge before mid-term exams.

Seniors don their thinking caps and sharpen their pencils to take the all-important College Boards.

High School students "go with Glenn" as they view an hour-long documentary on the flight of the Friendship Seven.

Day of reckoning! S.H.A.'ers burn the midnight oil as exam time rolls around.

Phyllis Chang receives a kiss from a young admirer after her Diploma Recital.

Theresa Pedro, with the "lovely hula hands," displays the trophy she won at the C.S.C. Talent Show.

The Jeanne d'Arc pays an unexpected visit to Honolulu, and the officers and midshipmen visit S.H.A.

A Hawaiian program, hastily assembled but beautifully done, is presented for "les français," and leis of aloha are offered.

"For you a lei . . ." Theresa Pestana and Lynette Ignacio greet the officers of the Jeanne d'Arc.

IN THE LIMELIGHT

February

Seniors Dolorine Tavares and Charlotte Leong examine 12-C's special events calendar.

February starts as all months should...
with a holiday?
Underclassmen enjoy a day of rest,
but seniors trudge up to U.H. to take the Entrance Exam.

The annual chocolate sale
gets under way; SHA'ers plod merrily home with bars, bags and boxes in hand
to aid the cause.

Interested students attend the U.H.
Speech Festival,
winning eight superior ratings
for the Academy.

What's this I see—why
all the long faces??
Oh, it's report card day...
say no more.

February 21 is a red letter day.
Seniors descend on Bellows Beach
for their long awaited
Class Picnic;
Freshman I goes leaf collecting;
and high school students
see an authentic puppet show.

The Hawaii Medical Association
sponsors its first Career Day, allowing students interested in a medical career

to enjoy "a day in the life of a doctor."

The Junior Class presents
"Chad," which was just "too romantic,"
and enjoyed by all.

High school students attend
a retreat,
which enables

them, through conferences,
meditations and prayers,
to take spiritual inventory;
and start
the Lenten Season
in a prayerful spirit.

Reverend Mother Mary Regis, SS.CC., aids
a little customer during the chocolate sale.

"Ah think it's terribly romantic," observes poetess
Jennie Overstreet to Nellie Hunt and Chad.

Watching the race are Major Buford, Thanky (in a most unladylike position), Old Tom, and "Miz Lucy" Buford.

IN THE LIMELIGHT

March

"Any old port in the storm."

In like a lion? My, yes.
Thunder, rain, and puddles galore
hail the advent of March.

SHA'ers become "Diplomats for a Day" as they attend the Model U.N.
sponsored by the OYC.

We went, we saw...
Speech Club members participate in the Punahou-St. Louis Tournament.

Junior Cheryl Gonsalves (there's that girl again!) wins first place
and a trophy
for Dramatic Interpretation.

Reverend Mother Mary Regis, SS.CC.
celebrates her Feast Day with prayers and best wishes
from students and faculty.

And thus it goes...

Report cards again appear,
followed closely by Easter vacation...
the Audion Banquet... and the Triple A Around the Island Tour.

Juniors and Seniors
enjoy "a lovely way
to spend an evening" at the Prom.

Soggy April melts into May,
bringing the May Pageant...
the Hawaiian Club Banquet...
Field Day and Parents Nite...
Seniors begin to feel
the wonderful, inevitable
excitement
as Graduation practice
begins, and "the big day"
looms close ahead.

Reverend Mother Mary Regis, SS.CC., accompanied by Sister Solange, returns from Adoration after her Feast Day Mass.

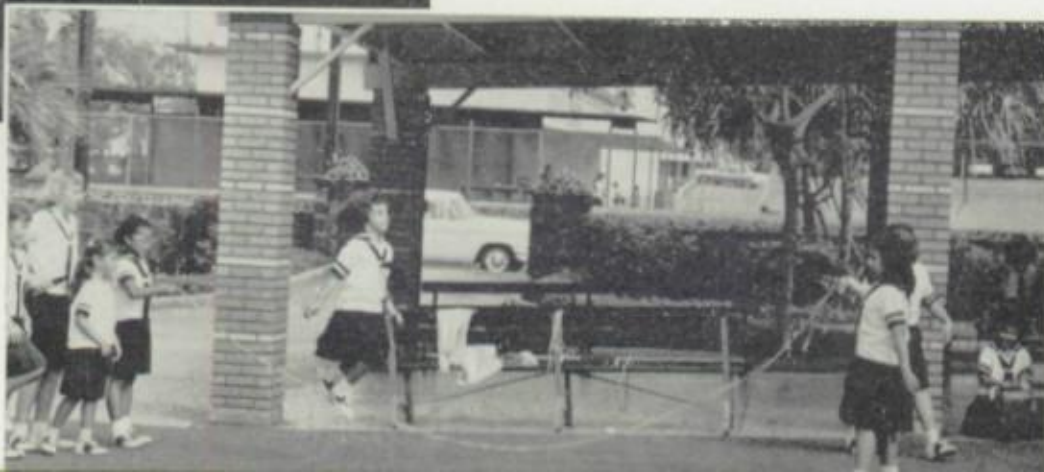

SHA'ers receive Holy Communion at Reverend Mother's Feast Day Mass.

June...and Graduation!
The Class of '63
takes a last, lingering,
grateful look at
dear old SHA
and with fond and sad farewell
reach out...
and seek their horizons.

Potential Songleaders Susan Watson, Cheryl Gonsalves, and Janice Leong do their stuff...

... while smaller SHA'ers enjoy a favorite pastime.

AND FROM AMONG OUR YEAR'S EXPERIENCES

It was "PLAY DAY"
on a Saturday at
S.H.A.

What goes up...

Among our guests:

students from:

Over and under.

Sacred Hearts Convent

Saint Francis Convent

Maryknoll . . .

We made new friends and joined with them in a day of Fun!

We like to recall . . .

Morning . . .

Recess

Periods!

Right on Campus!

Seniors attend a birthday party! Left to right: Judy Galassi, Roberta Reider (is she really eighteen?), Sue Fehr, Marguerite and Michele Anderson.

Juniors Geraldeen Lincoln, Theresa Pedro, Dorothy Paekului try out the new Coke machine.

Noon . . .

Service with and
for others!

and Afternoon . . .

*To the Best

A school year provides us
with many memories,
of knowledge and laughter,
heartache and joy.
This year, from our store
of experiences
we will remember...

last minute cramming we did...

Prayers we said
to honor saints...

Freshman initiation with all those monsters...

Swings came in handy...

and hopscotch!

We straggled in from recess...

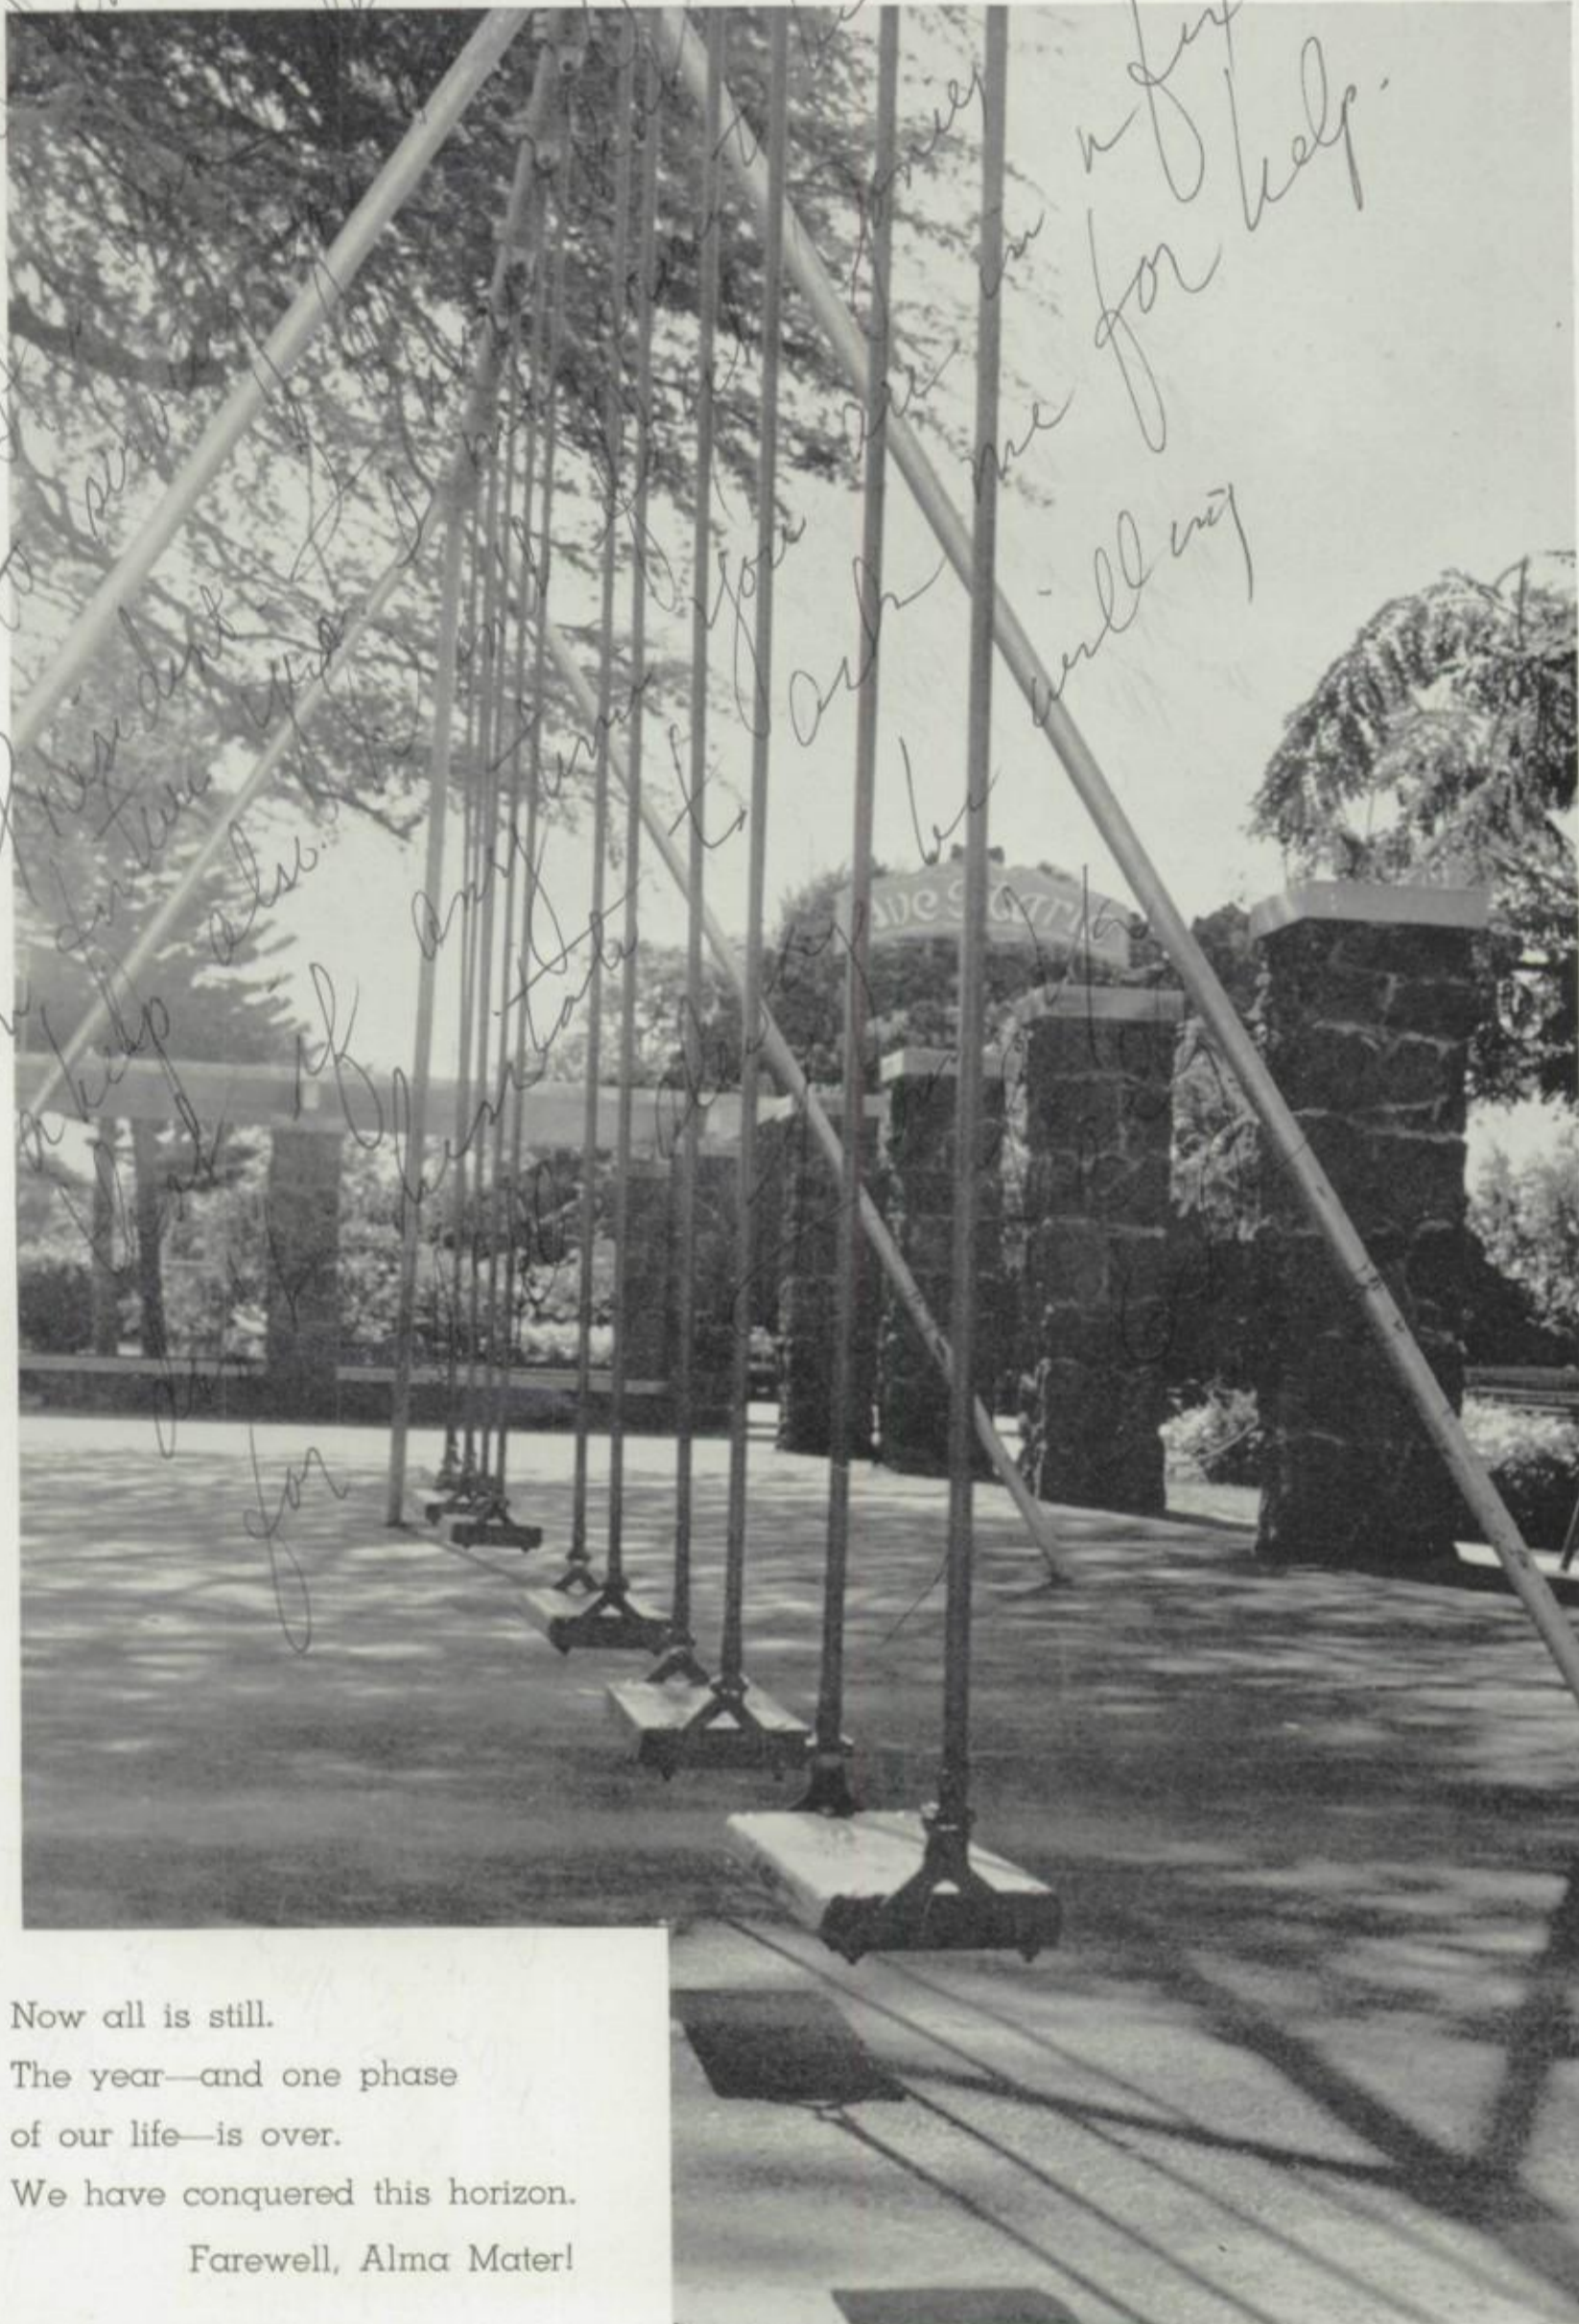

and never outgrew jump rope.

And well we remember the rain.

Now all is still.

The year—and one phase
 of our life—is over.

We have conquered this horizon.

Farewell, Alma Mater!

AUTOGRAPHS

Dear Jane,
 It has really been a great year. The 5
 of us have had such fun
 together and I hope it will extend into the summer.
 Really hope we get to have my party with everybody happy. Do until this summer, be good.
 Yours Aloha,
 Dede

Dear Jane,
 Another school year has gone
 by, and one more to go.
 Let's hope we can all have enough strength to get through another one.
 See you during the summer.

Aloha
 Jane

"J.R."

To a great Pref of 11-A. God bless you and may He guide you always. I thank you for your guidance.
 Love,
 Mary

THINK:
 ① swimming beats flying

 ② the rest of us - though I'm are "real" - they just sound supposed to mean - they are restricted to seniors only Good luck
 Judy

Jane Babes,
 Oo about this bitcher
 year you e'd have had.
 I'll always remember how get in the bus and (look forward to a good day)??? Remember now we told each other all our problems?
 Well take good care of your lot a clay
 Beach and make sure Marie makes good use of my baby bottle. Always, Sue Selu

Joe's been home
 and you know how
 a nice and good for you!

Jane,
 Have a litchen year as a mighty senior next year
 at S.H.S. I know you will.
 Stay cool always, Sue

Jane.
 Heris Walt leaving
 you a word of good advice.
 "Live fast, die young, and leave good looking corpse."
 Ding stay.
 Walt.

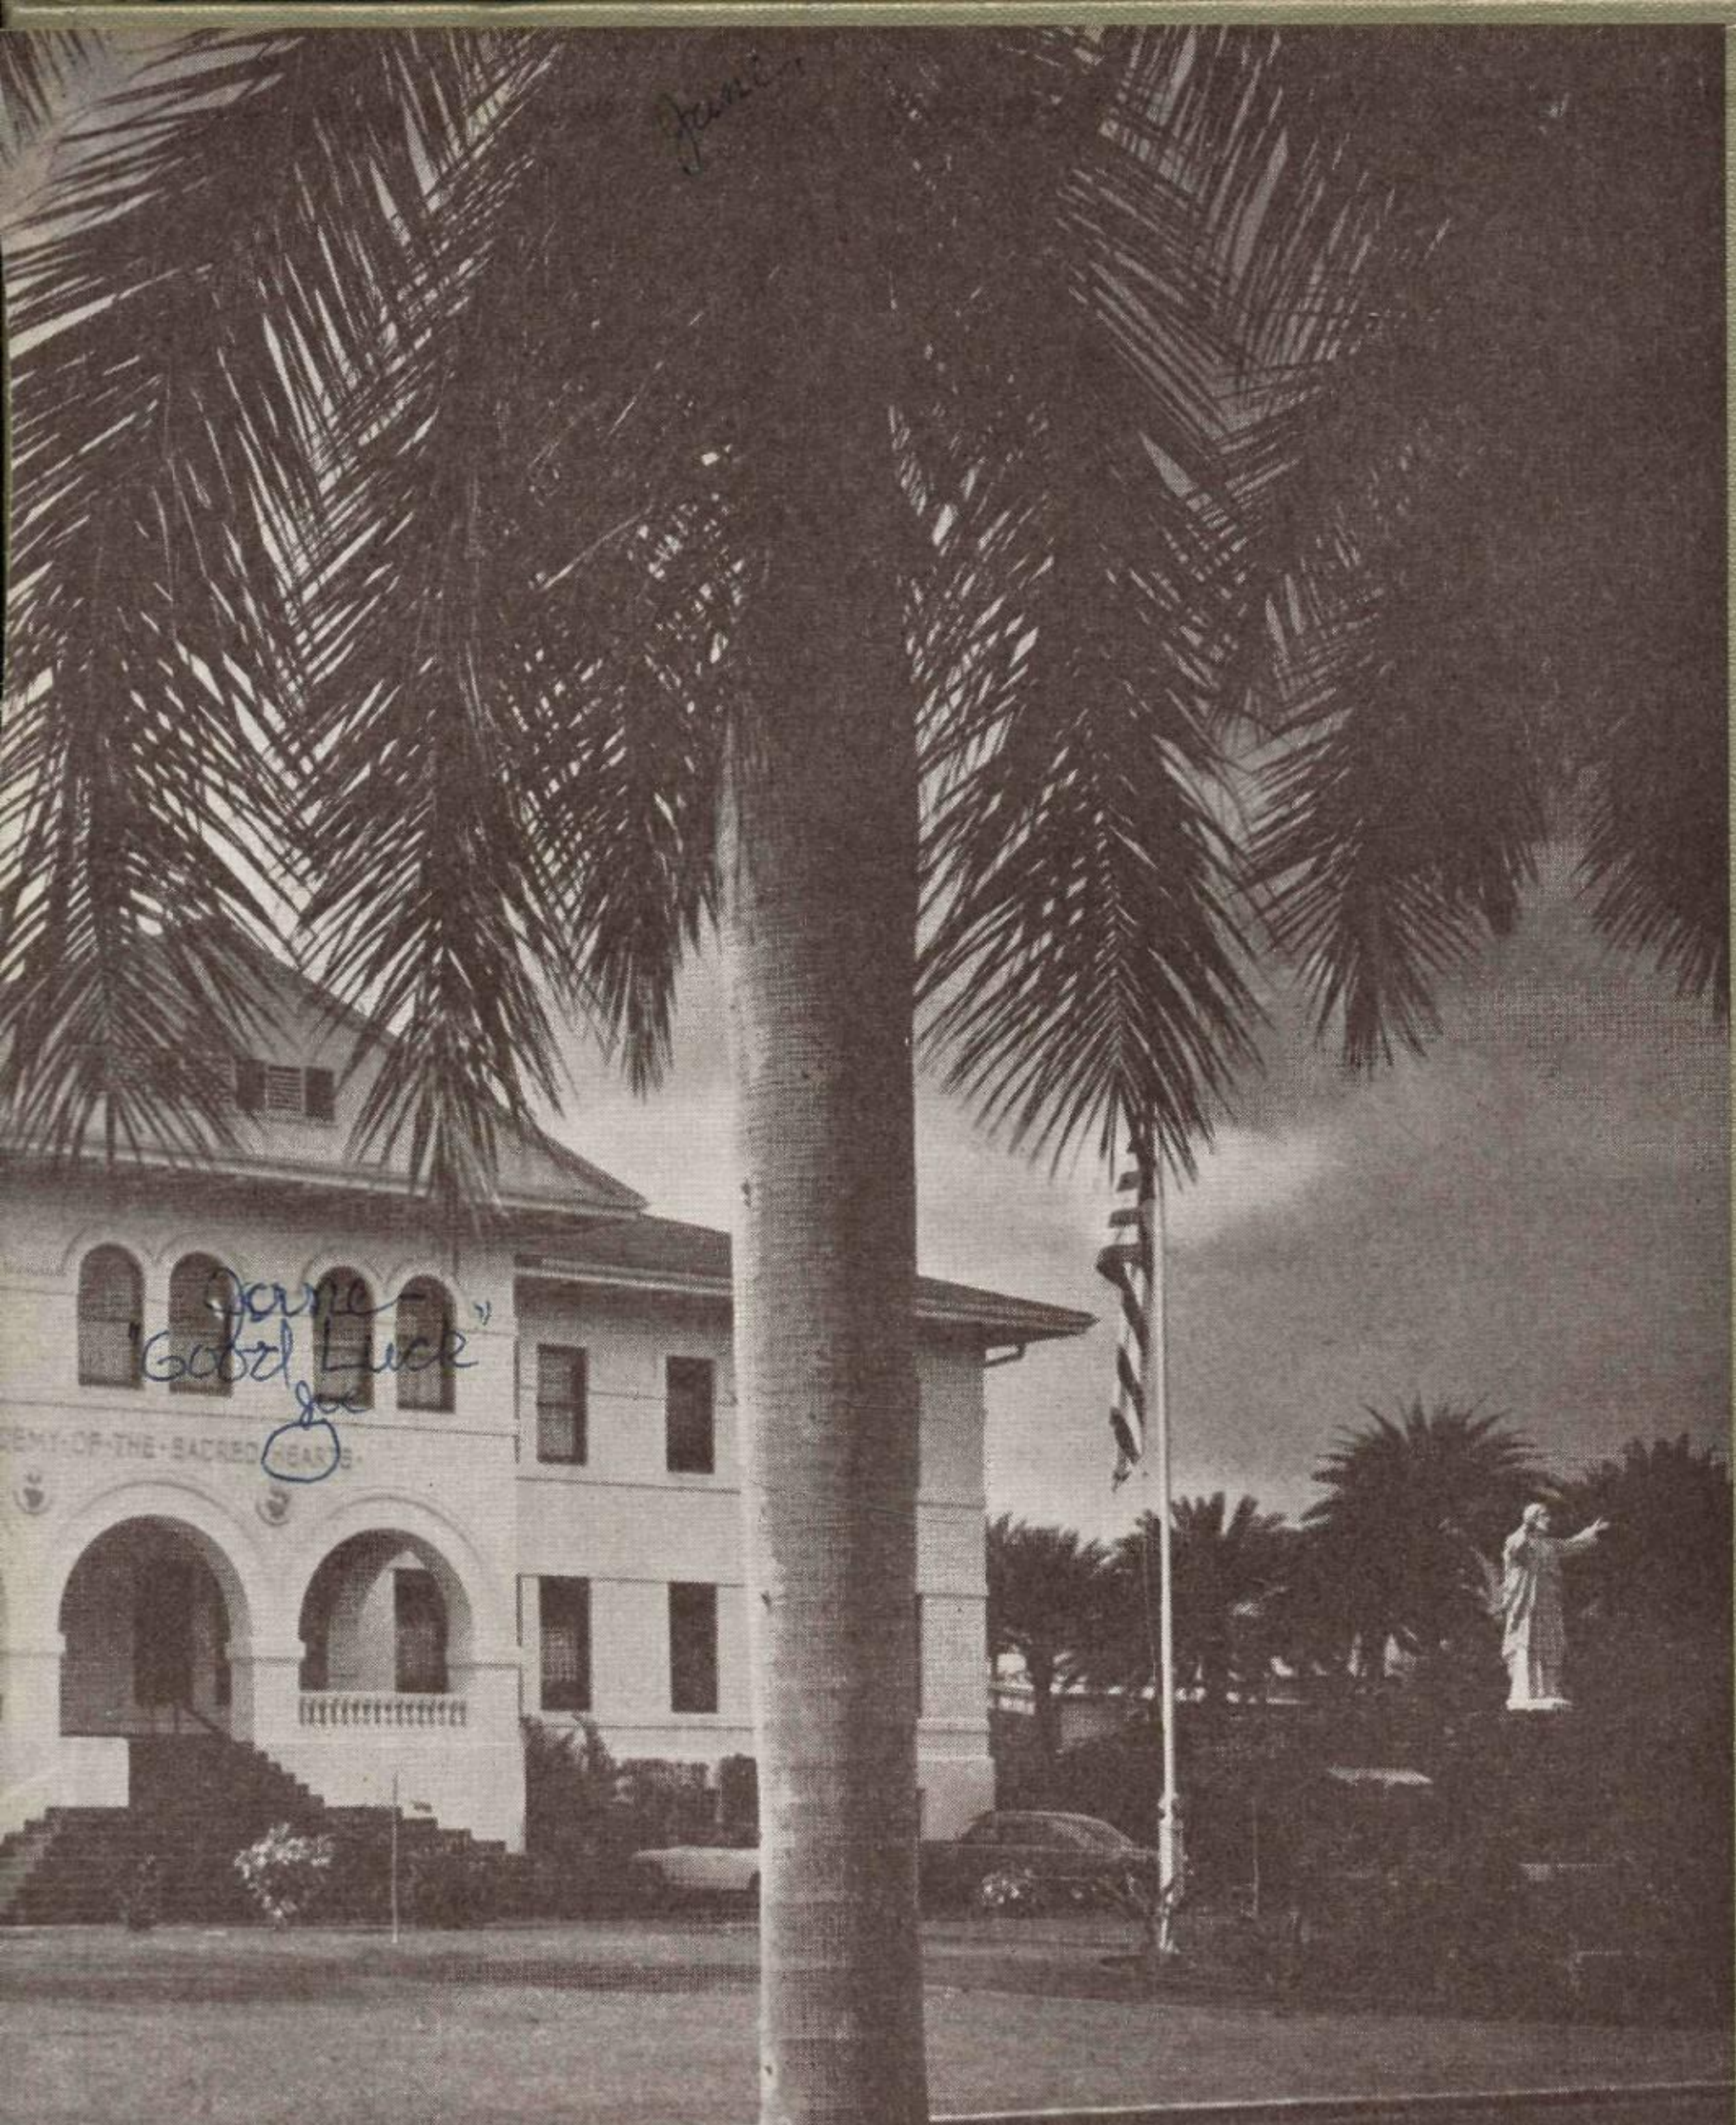

Jane,
 Have a swinging summer and see
 you next year.
 Always
 Annette

from
 and you know how
 a good and don't summer, and don't forget about you always. Sue 63 Summer

I really regret our one-sided disagreement + I hope you'll be a good summer by (my direction) over and that it's all over and
 now. Hope you have a come back of '64! Call me if you can't of the thing to do. I'm sure I can't trouble me could get into it. I like you do, don't be good! I'm sure I can't I'm sure I can't
